

Jane Jacobs (1916-2006) was an urbanist and activist who believed people should be able to design the places in their neighbourhoods.

Jane's Walk events happen on her birthday in May to celebrate her impact across the world.

Ready to get walking?

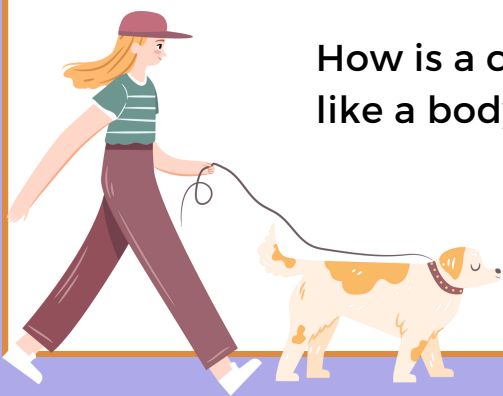

Jane's Walk King Township

“Streets and their sidewalks-the main public places of a city-are its most vital organs.”
- Jane Jacobs

How is a city
like a body?

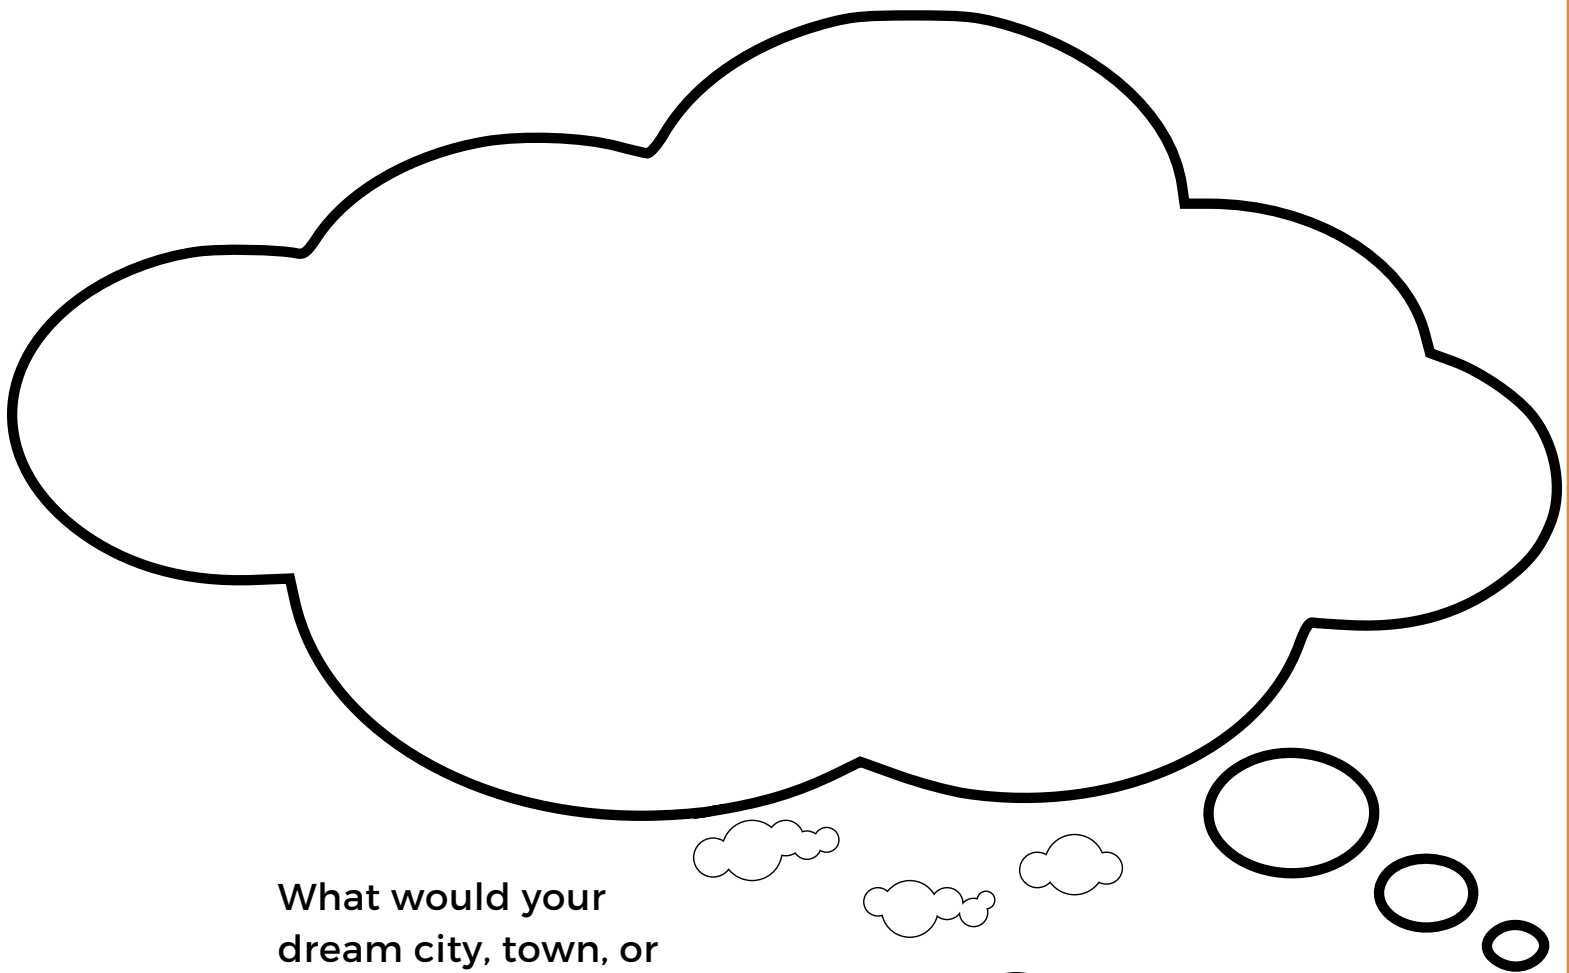

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

“Designing a dream city is easy;
rebuilding a living one takes imagination.”

- Jane Jacobs

What would your dream city, town, or village look like?

Draw it!

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

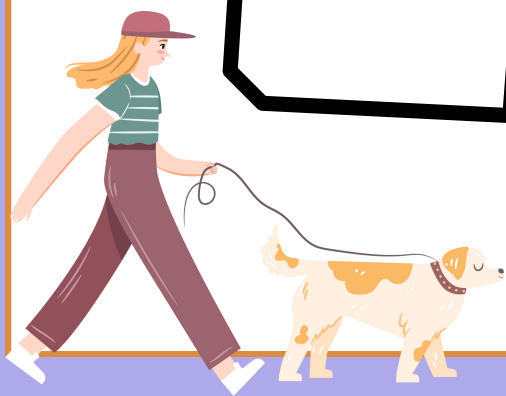

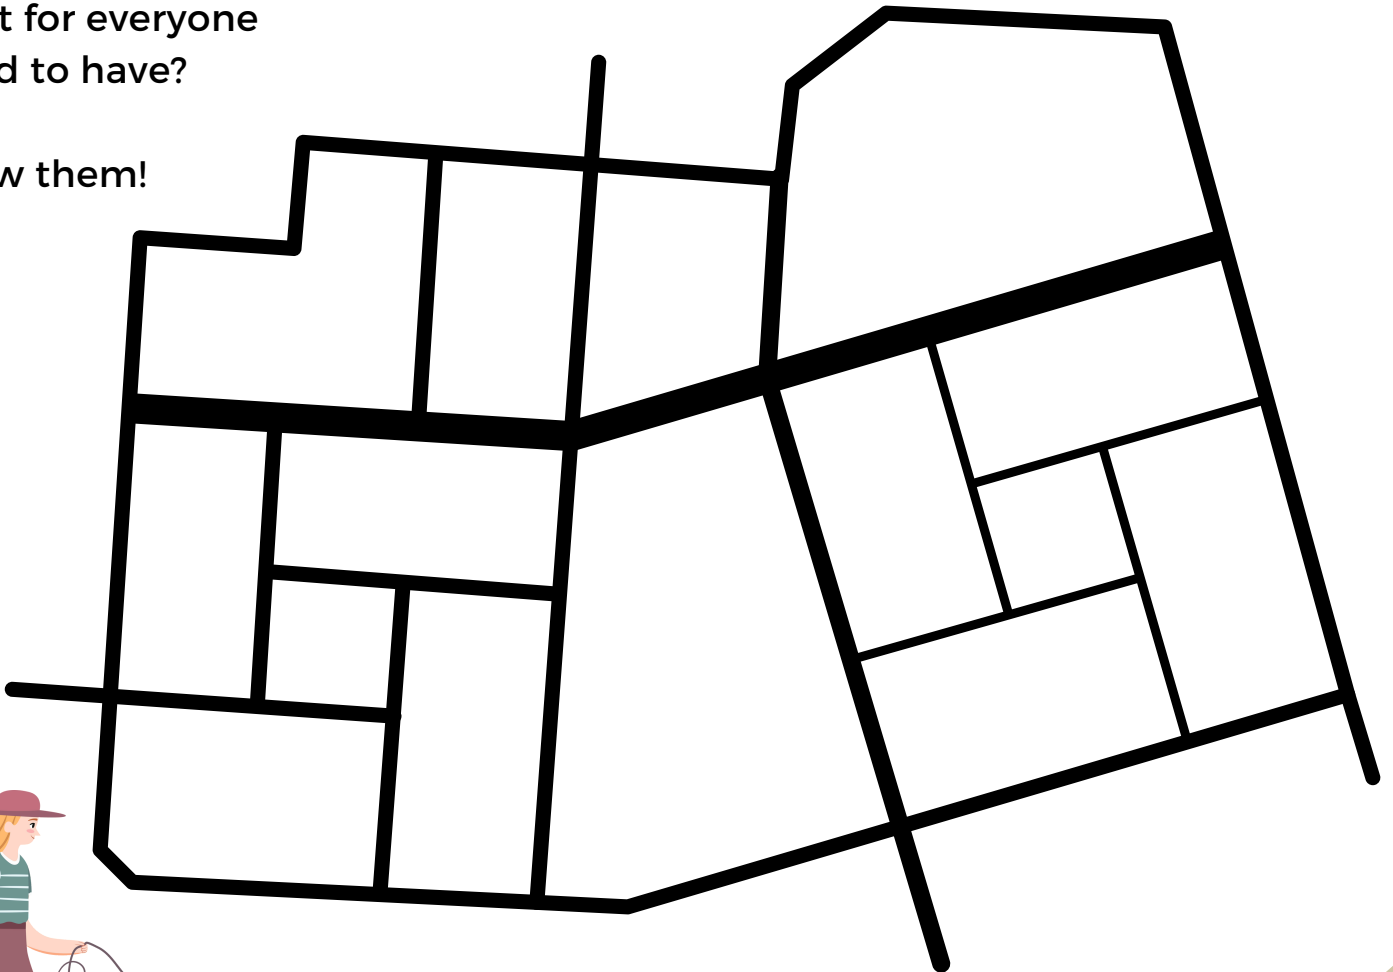

“Cities have the capability of providing something for everybody, only because, and only when, they are created by everybody.”

- Jane Jacobs

What kinds of things would a city that was built for everyone need to have?

Draw them!

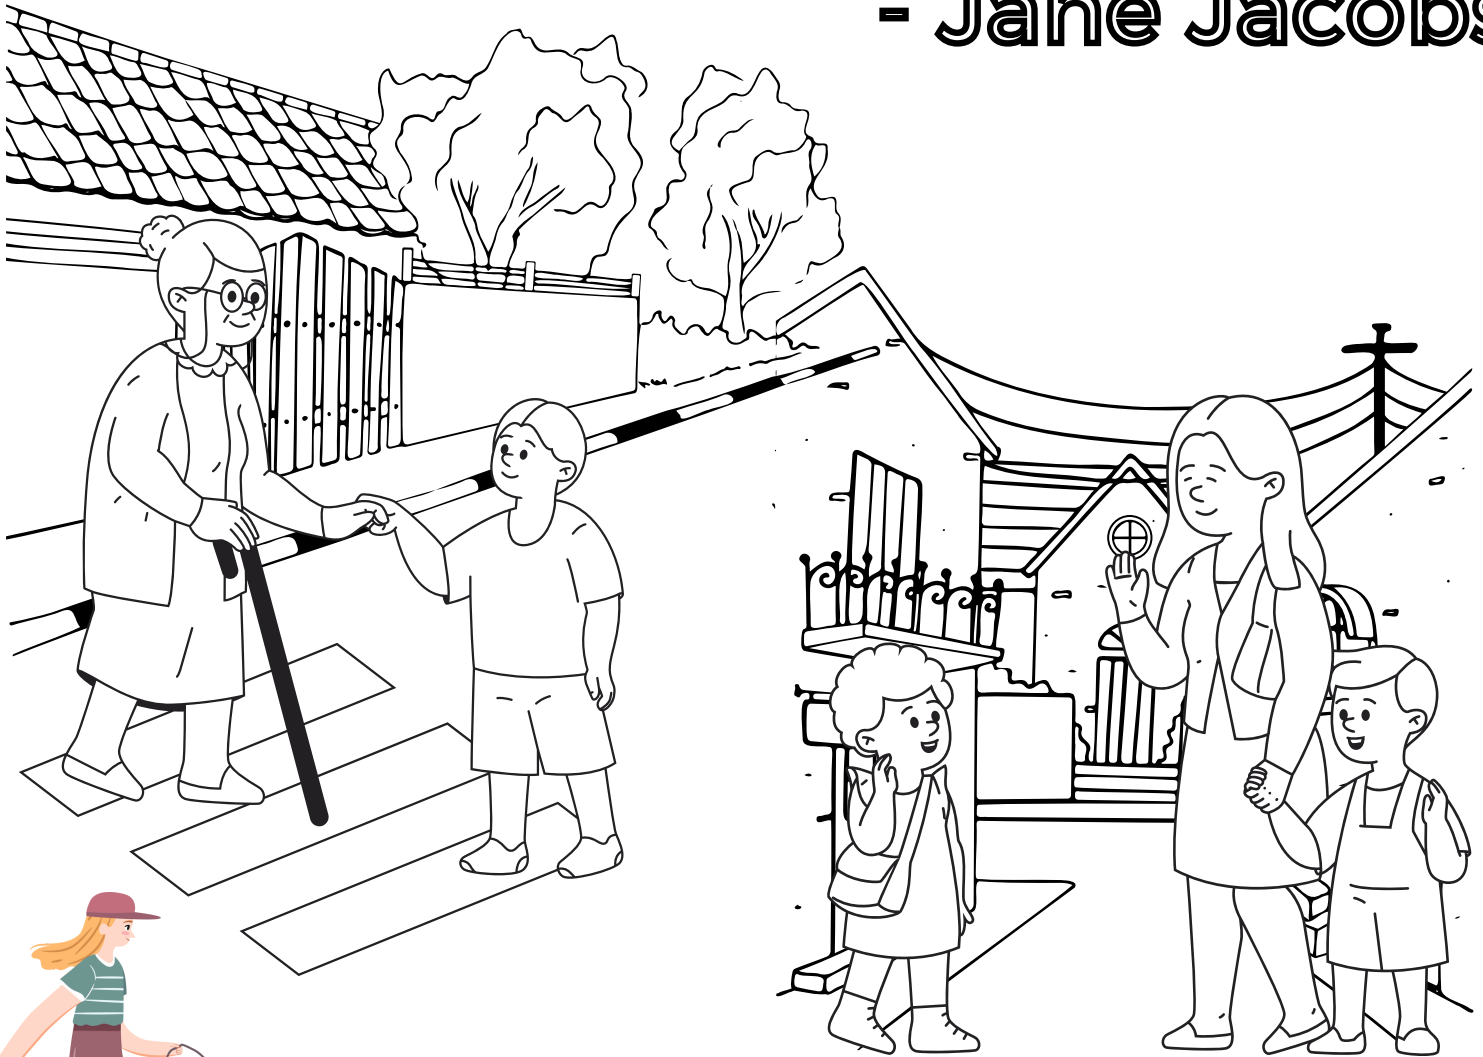

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

“Cities have the capability of providing something for everybody, only because, and only when, they are created by everybody.”

- Jane Jacobs

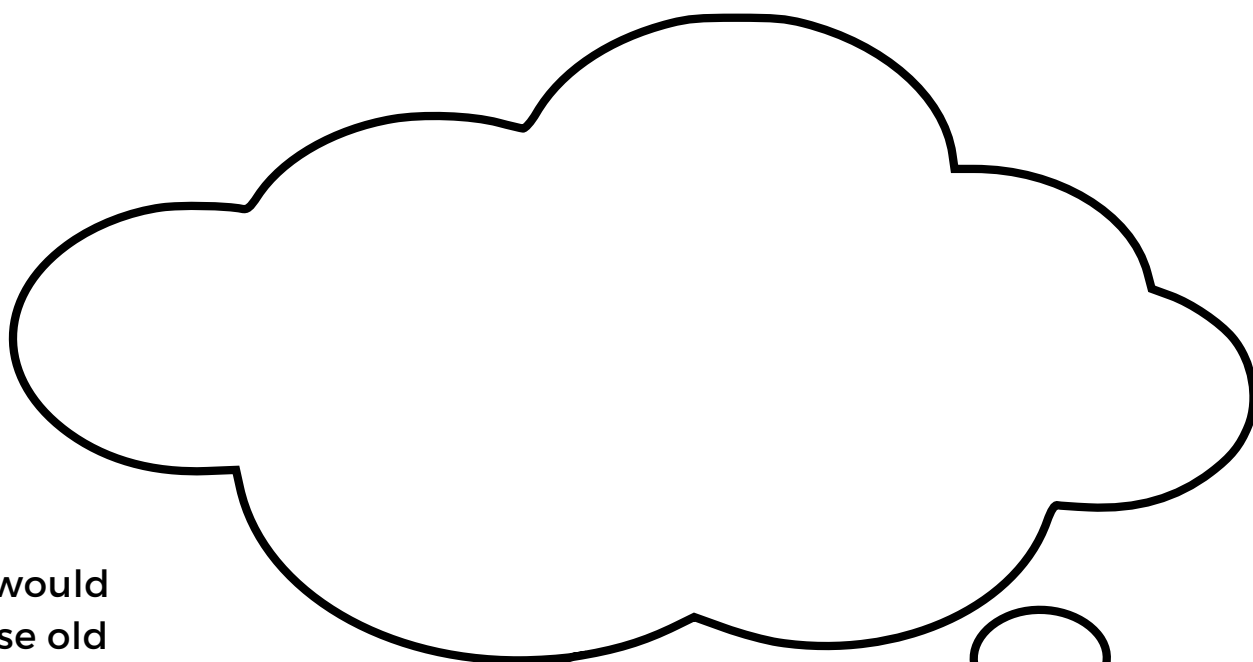

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

“New ideas must use old buildings.”

- Jane Jacobs

How would you use old buildings?

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

“You can't rely on bringing people downtown, you have to put them there.”

- Jane Jacobs

Draw some people walking, riding, or rolling through the town!

Ready to get walking?

Jane's Walk King Township

